FROM THE PRESIDENT

Wow! I wish I had bigger feet, because I have some big shoes to fill as the 2011-12 President of the Fort Wayne Philharmonic Friends. I feel blessed to be in the company of so many people who have extended their love of the Phil by becoming a part of the volunteer operations of the orchestra, and I am humbled to be the leader this year.

In these trying times the Phil needs the Friends. Browse through this issue and see many of the valuable services the Friends provide to the orchestra. The Friends give of our time, our talent, and our treasure to make sure that the best quality music is performed throughout Northeast Indiana and to facilitate the musical growth of our area young people for the benefit of future generations.

This is where you come in. Now is your chance to step up to another level of community support. If you are already a member of the Friends, please renew your membership today. If you are not a member, please consider joining. You can be as active a volunteer as you'd like. You can become a member and just enjoy the newsletter or consider volunteering for any of our exciting programs. Just fill out the volunteer opportunities and membership form on the last two pages, tear off and send along with your dues to the address provided.

Again, I look forward to a great year serving as the Friends president and serving all of you as we work toward a great community with great music.

FRIENDS VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Please check the areas you are interested in volunteering for, fill out the membership form on the back page, tear this page off and send along with your dues to the address given.

Education

- Youth Symphony and Youth Concert Orchestra: The Friends provide funds for the training of young musicians through coaching, grants to provide music and publicizing concerts.
- Musically Speaking (Adult Education): The Friends provide funds and organizes this educational event before each Masterwork concert.
- Young Artist Competition: Providing young musicians the opportunity to compete and perform, the Friends organize all aspects of this program.
- Instrument Loan: No child should be denied an opportunity to play a musical instrument because of financial issues. Therefore, the Friends maintain a supply of instruments, including small sized stringed instruments, brass, and woodwinds that are loaned to students at a very nominal maintenance fee. This fee is waived if the child qualifies for the school lunch program.
- Instrument Playground: Encouraging young people with a hands-on experience, the Friends organize about 10 playgrounds each year at community events throughout Northeast Indiana.
- Scholarships: Each year, the Friends provide scholarships to deserving young people to help offset the cost of private music lessons. The Friends also underwrite four scholarships to Summer String Camp. There are also two designated scholarships for piano students. Awards are determined by a committee of Friends.

Hospitality

- Membership Reception: This is a member recognition party after the October Masterworks concert.
- Musician Housing is provided for out-of-town musicians as needed.
- Rehearsal Snacks for musicians during the Friday evening rehearsal before each Masterworks.
- Musician and Chorus parties: Each year the Friends thank the musicians and chorus with a party or luncheon.
- Transportation: The Friends pick up musicians at the airport and deliver them to their hotel or rehearsals.
- Adopt a Musician: This program connects members of the Friends with an individual musicians. The Friends remember their musician at birthdays, holidays, and at least two parties are scheduled annually.
- Ushers for concerts not held at the Embassy Theatre.

Marketing/Fundraising

- Special Events: Planning and executing special events that provide funds for the Friends expenses in Education and Hospitality.
- Cookbook Sales: Ongoing promotion of the Phil Cookbook, "Playing With Food."
- Bus Trips: This year's trip is to Chicago to see the musical "Memphis." Join us on December 3.
- Rummage Sale: The Friends need volunteers to staff this ever-growing event whose dates and locations vary annually.
- AĆCENT Newsletter: Write and research articles, proof read, layout and local distribution.
- Electronic Media: Maintain web site, Facebook, do graphic design for various projects.
